A valuable dog belonging to O. T. Wilkinson was shot one day last week. The dog was not killed and its recovery may be possible. Whoever the guilty ones are that are chasing and doing bodily harm to our houn's and "kicking our dawgs aroun'," had better look out as a big surprise is in store for them if found out.

HENRY BATES

Chas. Spindler's Weekly Letter on Local Option.

Mr. Editor:

Concluding with Mr. Bigelow's "developing" paragraph in his letter of January 26th, I yet want to quote Mr. W. Simmons, President of the Simmons Hardware Co., who, in his address before the Forestry and Preservation Congress a year and a half ago in Minneapolis, showed by figures what Germany annually consumes in lumber for building, fire wood and manufacturing; and that, in spite of this enormous amount, the stand in timber does not decrease, owing to their policy, viz.: planting at least one for every tree they cut down. And how they have improved the value of the soil, so that they raise 50 to 55 bushels now, where 25 bushels per acre was a good average 25 years ago. This is developing, a la Webster—rising from a low to a high standard.

Or take Belgium, where more than 500,000 families live each on less than three acres, and less than 1,000 families own more than 100 acres. These people have the right to a claim on desirous and judicious development.

New Zealand is well developed: There are no millionaires and no paupers, because the law forbids anybody to hold more than 160 acres of land.

During the early summer of 1891 on a Sunday afternoon, I strolled through the Common (city park), in Boston, Mass. In the distance I noticed the Salvation Army with about 20 blaring brass pieces, drums and flags, and by the time I got near them they were kneeling down, praying for the salvation of all souls. About 20 feet away, on that short-cut lawn, I noticed a man rolling a sugar or flour barrel, and standing it on end he mounted it. There he stood patiently awaiting the amen of the prayers, and then with his pleasing sonorous voice addressed the crowd: "Ladies and gentlemen, you have heard a good sermon on salvation, now listen to my explanation of single taxation." In about an hour's talk, from that flour barrel pulpit, Henry George convinced me and no doubt others.

In his address in Metropolitan Hall, San Francisco, February 4, 1890, under title: "Justice the object, taxation the means," one can find it well expounded.

His Single Tax idea; abolishing all taxes whatsoever, but taxing land values only, would develop Mr. B's district. It would either make Mr. B. give up a big portion of his land to be used by somebody else, who would use it so that he could pay that single tax, or it would drive Mr. B. to produce something from the soil, so that he could pay THAT SINGLE LAND VALUE TAX. It would stop him from developing our valley into an aristocratic, feudal, slave-keeping district.

Land monopolized, water and power monopolized, a race of cheap laborers crowded in, whose effect upon our whole laboring class is precisely that of slavery; all the avenues of trade and travel controlled and wealth and power concentrated in a few hands is the style of developing and promoting for the benefit of few; but not wanted and less suited in our valley.

Looking once more at our resources, I say the most important product of the soil is WINE. Over ¾ million gallons of table wine are produced annually in Sonoma Valley, representing about one-quarter million dollars, and this industry Mr. B. will develop out of the valley. While presently his expressed aim is the closing of saloons only, his next step, naturally and consequently, is total prohibition, same as with all the temperance fanatics, who never stop to think and consider consequences. They will even not look at authoritative figures given out by the Internal Revenue office.

If Mr. B. will convince himself, and sacrifice a 2 cent postage stamp, the Internal Revenue office will send him the last year's annual report, in which he can find how many illicit stills Uncle Sam closed and how moonshine business increased against previous years in those totally dry districts, and how the sale and consumption of whiskey gained in consequence of temperance agitation — staggering figures.

Outside of grapes from Sonoma soil there is a limited amount of fruit raised in our valley, and no doubt a good deal more could be accomplished in this line if through co-operation in planting, dispensing of fruit, etc., better conditions were aimed at. Worth mentioning also is needed extensive education in scientific farming by lessons in our public schools, and otherwise; aided by State and Federal Government. Our dry summers, without irrigation, should not discourage anybody. We are a little later with our fruit than elsewhere, and consequently have to figure with a cannery as an ultimate object in this line.

Hay, from the soil, I have also mentioned, but the exportation of hay from our valley is not a big item, same with hops and various other products.

The second in line of resources from the soil is the famous and valuable hot mineral water. However, the present operated bathing resorts are in a position to accommodate all guests, so that an immediate further development in this line is not opportune, and I have already expressed my opinion that these will go dry partially first, and altogether in time, if Mr. B. dry-develops the valley.

Chicken raising and egg producing is not exactly a resource from the soil. That business could be carried on or done on a boarded floor. Only the Jersey kale or other green feed raised from the soil, perhaps one-tenth of the required feed, can be credited to our soil. The difference between export and feed import, viz., the profit in this line of business, is created mostly by labor; and the cheaper this labor can be hired, the bigger the profit. This, I agree, is developed by Mr. B. to the highest degree. That it does not benefit nor develop the valley he knows as well as all those who have given it some thought, in spite of taking picture books to Los Angeles on special trains.

In the next paragraph of his letter Mr. B. says that he was held up or stopped on the road to Sonoma the other day. This paragraph I shall take up in my next issue.

NEW CITY OFFICIALS TAKE OFFICE.

Inducted Into Office Last Monday Evening—Mayor Cummings Re-Elected President of the Board

At a meeting of the City Trustees, held last Monday evening, the old members of the Board, Messrs. McDonell and Quartaroli, retired and the newly elected Trustees, Geo. Breitenbach and Claude Johnson, were inducted into office in their stead.

Hartley Gottenberg, re-elected City Clerk, and Will F. Clewe, the new Treasurer, were also sworn in.

Mayor M. E. Cummings was unanimously re-elected President of the Board, which gives promise of being one of the best this city has ever had.

At the May meeting of the Board Mayor Cummings will announce his committees. A City Marshal, Librarian and Recorder will also be chosen to serve two years each.

BIGELOW LIBEL SUIT DISMISSED

Accused, Fearing Further Prosecution, Apologizes to the Supervisors and Takes it all Back

The libel suit instituted by Herbert Austin, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, against G. J. K. Bigelow of the local Prohibition organ, whose preliminary examination was to have taken place last Tuesday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Campbell of this city, was dismissed by that official on advice of district attorney Lea.

The arrest was the outcome of a series of articles accusing the Board of Supervisors of jobbing the people in setting the date for the Local Option election in this district for May 14th. Seeing that his misstatements had gotten him into serious trouble, Bigelow exonerated the Supervisors and made an abject apology to its members in last week's issue of his organ. Hence the dismissal of the suit.

The Poor, Not The Rich, Suffer From Local Option

It is true that the Wyllie Local Option Bill states that liquors may be served by any person at his own home to members of his family or to his guests as an act of hospitality, when no money or thing of value is received in return therefor, but with the exception of wine which may be purchased from wineries in quantities not less than two gallons, all liquor must come from some outside no-license territory.

Any such form of prohibiton or restricton bears most heavily upon the poorer classes, the rich being always able to secure whatever potations they wish, while the modest laboror finds it expensive to buy in this fashion.

No one can question the sincerity of Mr. William Gladstone to reduce drunkenness, but when urged to join in a temperance propagandism in 1864, he wrote: "How can I, who have drunk good wine and bitter beer all my life, in a comfortable room among friends, cooly stand up and advise hard-working fellow-creatures to take the pledge."

In the December 30th, 1911, issue of the Socialists' organ, The Appeal to Reason, some interesting reciprocity were as follows: ingly brought out. Says the e[illegible] an speech at Grand Rapids, Mich., eb. 11, 1911, he said:

"Here, friends in Michigan, right on [illegible] thern frontier, I have the pecul[illegible] congratula-

"Last year the country produced [illegible] spirits—about two gallons per capita. There was also manufactured 63,000,000 barrels of beer, about twenty gallons per capita. That would mean about $12.00 for every man, woman and child in this country, or about $60.00 per family, counting five persons to the family. The 18th annual labor report issued by the government, giving the result of an investigation covering 33 states, reports that the average workingman's family expended $12.45 per year for liquors. According to these figures, it would seem that the rich and idle class' though constituting less than 20 per cent of the population, consume more than 80 per cent of the liquor. Yet there are political economists who tell us that the workingman is poverty stricken because he is a boozer!"

In view of the fact that our beer and wine industries are among the state's most valuable assets, it would seem that the intelligent workingman is in no danger of being deceived by the Anti-Saloon League in their war upon California's industries. Such is the conceit of their leaders, however, that they really expect to persuade the workingman to vote away his personal liberty, his work and his living.

The forthcoming election will show them their mistake.

Let Us Have Peace

A few of those who favored the recent High License proposition in this town have proved themselves poor losers and are threatening to put a wet or dry proposition before the voters to get even. Now this is all wrong. Let us have peace and harmony in our little community. Nothing is to be gained for Sonoma by the injurious agitation of the demagogues and fanatics, whose only aim in life appears to be to breed strife and trouble in their community. These agitations are not to the liking to the Index-Tribune at all, as its editor with other peace-loving citizens of this city are unavoidedly dragged into the fray to put up a defensive battle against these schemers and trouble-breeders who, without sense or reason, would keep Sonoma in a constant turmoil of strife and trouble.

People having the real interests of Sonoma at heart should not be misled by these demagogic agitators who are doing its people a world of injury, and who now threaten to put the town in the throes of a wet or dry contest, which will do no good, but be productive of much ill-feeling among a people who ought to be at peace with each other.

A Wail From Another Dry Town

The following from the Ione Echo, of last week tells its own story:

"The Echo, under the present management, is not in favor of a dry town. There is no use going into details in the matter, but suffice to say that a dry proposition is not a benefit to this community. This paper feels the effect of it worse than any other business in town. We have no abuse to hand out to the drys, and are content to wait, knowing the people will soon tire of a law that is hurtful in its action."

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an alterative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough.

No one ever takes cold unless [illegible] ated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-round tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.

MRS. DORN.

"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Mrs. W. DORN, of New Brookland, S. C., to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation. I was bedridden, unable to sit up for six months —and was nothing but a live skeleton. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. When I had taken one bottle of the 'Discovery' I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my cooking and tend to children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 167 pounds.

"Easy Jim" Tells in an Interesting Way all About the Week's Happenings in and About His Section of the Valley.

Mrs. Peter Deirx of the Hyde tract is visiting friends in the Bay City.

Mrs. Adolph Rubke was a passenger on Wednesday morning's train to the Bay City.

A large number of eggs are being shipped from this station daily and the poultry men seem to be kept busy.

Henry Hyde and family spent Saturday and Sunday at the old homestead on the Hyde tract and returned to the metropolis Monday.

Albert Trautvetter of the Brookside poultry yards on the Hyde tract left for San Francisco last Saturday afternoon on business and will be absent several days.

Happy Harry Andrieux, Marshal of Wingo, was a guest at Pleasant Villa on Sunday last and in the afternoon visited his old friend Jim Small. Oh no, Harry never forgets Jim.

We understand that a man became demented on the Hyde tract on Thursday and that those who saw him thought that he was insane. Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan was notified and has the case in hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Batto, May Bosch and Mary Batto motored to the northern part of the valley on Sunday last and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Levy of the Hotel Mervyn at Glen Ellen.

In case any one does not know how to vote the coming election just ask his honor the Mayor. He knows all about it, or if you can't vote yourself he will do it for you. Leave it to the Mayor if you want to go dry.

The grand opening at the new Forni building on Saturday evening, April 20th, will be one of the social events of the season. Professor Ricci, one of the best known accordeon artists on the Pacific Coast, has been engaged to furnish the music. Mr. Ricci is well known in this vicinity and will certainly make good on dance music. The admission will be free.

A mistake was made in the last issue of the Index-Tribune concerning the banquet given by the Native Sons at Vineyard Villa in which it stated the spread was prepared by Mrs. B. E. Darling of Sonoma. The banquet was prepared by the chef of the villa and his assistants. Mrs. Darling furnished the delicious pastry that was served at the repast and it was surley a credit to that lady.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Murray of this place were presented with a baby girl Thursday.

Sunday was an ideal day and quite a number of visitors were entertained in this burg and vicinity.

It is reported that we will soon have a swell base ball club in Vineburg. I hope so, but oh whata dream.

Walter Bundschu is now on a visit to friends and relatives around the bay cities. Safe return home, Walter.

Miss Vivia Hunter of San Francisco was the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunter at The Knoll on Sunday last.

Mrs. Fred Batto and her charming daughter Miss Louisa were the guests of Petaluma and Santa Rosa friends a couple of days last week and report a pleasant time.

Sunday afternoon, in April, one lady driving an auto through Vineburg 37½ miles an hour on register, one railroad crossing, one sign post, look out. Now no sign post, no lady, no auto, look in.

Fred Batto transacted business in San Francisco on Monday last and on Tuesday in Sonoma city. Wednesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Heggie and Mrs. Fred Batto he motored to Petaluma. Going some, Fred.

E. Forni of Pleasant Villa, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Helen, transacted business and was the guest of friends and relatives in San Francisco on Saturday last. He returned on Sunday morning after a pleasant trip.

Four of Sonoma city's solid men passed through this burg on Wednesday last. They were Jesse Burris, Henry Bates Dr. Hays, and Mr. Clements of Eden Dale in a swell auto. It looked to us that they were heading towards the Rhinefarm. Oh, what's the use.

We are happy to state that our local merchant and postmaster, W. R. Hansen, is now able to be around after his late illness. During his absence from the store his place was ably filled by his partner, Harry Kizer, who is a gentleman that is very popular in this section and knows his business.

AN EMERGENCY OPERATION.

Performed in the Barroom of the Mervyn Hotel, Glen Ellen, by Drs. Leix, Jesse and Francis

Last Wednesday evening Dr. Leix was was called to Glen Ellen in consultation with Dr. Francis of that place and Dr. J. W. Jesse of Santa Rosa, the patient being Foreman Behrns, who is superintending the building of a cottage at the Sonoma State Home, and who is residing temporarily at the Mervyn Hotel. The patient was found to be suffering from appendicitis, and in order to save his life an immediate operation was necessary.

Being too far gone with the disease to be taken to a hospital, the surgeons performed the operation in the barroom of the hotel at 2 o'clock in the morning.

The operation was successfully performed and the patient is now out of danger.

Dismissed for Purpose of Amending the Complaint

The criminal libel suit against G. J. K. Bigelow, which was dismissed on advice from District Attorney Lea, does not end the case. The dismissal was asked for and granted for the purpose of amending the complaint. This news comes from Santa Rosa as we go to press.

Committed to an Asylum for the Insane.

John Gogeo, an employee on the Hyde ranch, who went suddenly insane one day this week and was taken into custody by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan, was committed to the Napa asylum Thursday by Judge Denny. The man when arrested was in a sad plight. In his insane wanderings he had bruised himself up considerably and had nearly bitten his tongue off.

Mrs. Robert Potter Hill has recovered from her late severe spell of sickness.

At the recent school election here Mrs. A. E. Cromwell, E. A. Ranker and F. H. Edrington were elected trustees.

LOCAL OPTION IN APPELLATE COURT

A Decision on District Attorney Lea's Appeal From Judge Denny's Decision Looked For Today

As we go to press at 2 p. m. Friday afternoon the looked for decision of the Appellate Court, sitting in Sacramento, on District Attorney Clarence F. Lea's appeal from the decision of Judge Denny has not yet materialized. The Judge held that the Local Option election could not be held in this Supervisorial district legally on Tuesday, May 14th, the date set by the Board of Supervisors for holding the election. Judge Denny taking the ground that the Presidential Preference Primary was not a general, but a special election.

This decision is being looked forward to with much interest by our people.

FACED SURE DEATH AS BRAVE MEN

The Band Plays and the Victims of the Titanic Sing "Nearer My God to Thee," as the Vessel Plunges to the Bottom of the Ocean

The survivors of the ill-fated Titanic arrived in New York Thursday night, and for the first time the real story of the disaster was told by the survivors. Sixteen hundred and one lives were sacrificed in the awful sea disaster, the greatest of modern times. The story of the fatal plunge of the monster liner to the bottom of the ocean is a most pathetic story. With the women and children safe in the life boats, with the exception of a few wives who preferred to die with their husbands, 1601 brave men fearlessly braved death, as becoming Americans, of which the passenger list was mostly composed. Just before the big ship went down the band struck up "Nearer My God to Thee," and the brave passengers and seamen taking up the refrain were singing the sacred hymn in the face of sure death when the big vessel made her fateful drive and obliterated every human being on its decks from sight forevermore.

The disaster is one of the most pathetic in the history of the sea, and as reported by the survivors is even worse than at first reported by wireless messages.

Potter-Crevelli Law Suit

The suit recently instituted in Judge Seawell's department of the Superior Court by Charles R. Potter of Schellville against his neighbor, Alexander Crevelli, to determine the former's right of way over the lands of the latter, was decided in Potter's favor Thursday.

Judge Emmet Seawell made an order that the gates across the right of way he travels must be flung open wide for him and must not be padlocked. An opinion will be written by the Court.

At the trial Potter, who was represented by Attorney William F. Cowan, set up among other things, a deed and agreement that dated back to 1861, whereby he and his successors in interest were to have the right of way in question perpetually and without let or hindrance.

Crevelli urged that he did not mind Potter traveling the road but he would not allow others to do so.

The Board of Supervisors will meet in adjourned session Monday to take up the Local Option election matter in this Supervisorial district.

The dry north wind that has prevailed throughout this section the past three days has been a corker, and surely cannot fail to be to the liking of the Local Optionists who favor the drying up of our beautiful valley.

The entertainment and dance given by St. Barbaras' Guild on Friday evening of last week in Union Hall was successfully carried out. The program, which consisted of vocal and instrumental music, together with the farce "Turn Him Out," was well rendered. Refreshments were for sale and dancing was enjoyed until midnight. A neat sum was realized.

REMAINS OF A MURDERER FOUND

Sequel to the Killing of Demenico Calabrese Near Melitta Over A Year Ago

On February 4th of last year Amaballe Marcano shot and killed Domenico Calabrese, a fellow blockmaker, in the Gray basalt block quarries in Rincon Valley. The deed was committed with a double-barrelled shotgun and immediately after the killing, armed with the weapon, the murderer took to the hills and made good his escape. The Sheriff's officers took up the trail of the fugitive but search as they may no trace of the murderer could be found. The officers then came to the conclusion that the man after eluding them had taken his own life. Now, after the lapse of over a year, this theory has proven to be correct.

On Monday last while the Bansea brothers, were on their way to the Gray quarries from Santa Rosa, they lost the trail and while attempting to find it in the wooded hills came suddenly upon the remains of a man with a rusty double barrelled shotgun alongside them. Nothing but the bones remained and a few shreds of clothing, but the latter and the gun were identified as belonging to the murderer of Calabrese, who fearing arrest and punishment for his crime, which was a cold blooded murder, had sneaked into the brush about a quarter of a mile from where he had killed his victim and taken his own life.

An inquest was held over the remain by Coroner Blackburn and a verdict was rendered in accordance with the above facts.

"It thirsts and burns for distinction; and, if possible, it will have it. Is it unreasonable, then, to expect that some men, possessed of the loftiest genius, coupled with ambition sufficient to push it to the utmost stretch, will at sometime spring up among us? And when such a one does, it will require the people to be united with each other, attached to the government and laws, and generally intelligent, to successfully frustrate his design.

"Distinction will be his paramount object, and although he would as willingly acquire it by doing good as harm, yet nothing left in the way of building up he would sit down boldly to the task of pulling down. Here then is a probable case, highly dangerous."

TAFT MAKES GOOD LABOR PLEDGES

Administration's Record Squares With Its Promises.

MANY NEW LAWS ENACTED

Postal Savings Banks, Workmen's Compensation and Employers' Liability and Other Laws Passed.

From the day three years ago when it placed its interests in the keeping of William Howard Taft to this hour labor has critically scanned his every act, and with discriminating mind it is judging him as one who, without claim or demonstration, has kept the faith. On Sept. 9, 1908, Theodore Roosevelt, then president of the United States, wrote a letter to Conrad Kohrs on the issues of the campaign and, addressing himself to the laboring men, said:

"If there is one body of men more than another whose support I feel I have a right to challenge on behalf of Secretary Taft it is the body of wage workers of the country. A stauncher friend, a fairer and truer representative they cannot find within the borders of the United States. He will do everything in his power for them except to do that which is wrong. He will do wrong for no man and therefore can be trusted by all men."

Mr. Taft Labor's Friend.

The workingmen of the country judged Mr. Taft in 1908 by a record of twenty-seven years as a statesman, administrator of national affairs and presidential adviser, and they helped to give him the magnificent majority which put him in the White House. During the three years he has been president his excellent record has been maintained so splendidly that the laboring men have been confirmed in the belief that they never had a better friend in the White House.

The establishment of the postal savings banks, which was recommended by President Taft, was one of the things that organized labor favored. The $16,000,000 now on deposit in these depositories represents the savings of the wage earners.

Taft's Personal Interest.

President Taft approved a law on May 30, 1908, to compensate workmen for injuries received while in the employ of the United States. After the passage of this act a number of workmen in the employ of the federal government were killed, and their families, not being familiar with the provisions of the law, failed to file affidavits within the specified time. The secretary of commerce and labor had no power to set aside the provision of the law and was therefore obliged to disapprove the claims.

The matter was taken up by the president, and he satisfied himself that justice was not being done to the families of the men who had been killed. He sent a special message to congress recommending that a general act be passed allowing all such claimants compensation if their claims were otherwise meritorious. This was an instance that proved the president to be broadminded and anxious to aid the workingmen in any way that he could.

An employers' liability act approved June 11, 1906, was on January 8, 1908, held to be unconstitutional. Another of this sort was passed on April 22, 1908, which as yet has not been tested in the courts. Through the efforts of the president a commission was appointed to make an investigation of the subject of "employers' liability and workmen's compensation."

Labor Men Appointed.

The report of the commission, the evidence taken before it and the draft of the bill prepared as a result of the findings of said commission have been transmitted to congress, accompanied by a special message by President Taft, in which he recommends the passage of the proposed measure. In their deliberations the members of the commission had the benefit of frequent consultations with the president. It is believed the act will stand the test of constitutionality.

In order that the commission might have the benefit of the experience of a practical man President Taft appointed as one of its members Daniel L. Cease, the editor of the Railroad Trainmen's Journal, the official organ of the railroad trainmen. Mr. Cease has devoted the best years of his useful life to the cause of labor. The president also appointed experienced labor men as inspectors under the locomotive boiler inspection law. They were John F. Ensign of Colorado and Frank McManamy of Oregon for chief inspector and assistant chief inspector respectively.

The defects in the present eight hour law have not escaped the attention of President Taft. He has recommended to congress amendments which will make it really effective by "providing that public works shall be construed to include not only buildings and works upon public grounds, but also ships' armor and large guns when manufactured in private yards or factories."

Thirty Years' Service.

With regard to the high cost of living, which increases the burden of the wage earners, President Taft has already taken the initiative that will result in a worldwide inquiry into this problem. He has advocated the assembling of a world's congress to discuss its varied phases and to suggest remedies.

This unparalleled record of thirty years' service to the cause of all the people is deserving of consideration. No charge of broken faith or of broken promises can be made, no hint of departure from the plain path of duty can be laid at the door of William Howard Taft, who without ostentatious display has wisely and fearlessly administered the trust imposed upon him in 1908, when he was elected to his high office by the votes of laboring men.

DELEGATES PLEDGED FOR TAFT.
